IN CENTRAL AMERICA—THE TAX ON ADVERTISEMENTS TO BE ABOLISHED—THE SEARCHING OF KOSSUTH'S HOUSE-MUNITIONS OF WAR DISCO-

In the House of Commons, on the 14th instant. Sir DE LACEY EVANS asked the government whether, in their negotiations with the United States, or with the Central American States, the rights and interests of Britain, and of British subjects in Honduras, and those of Britain's ancient ally, the King of the Mosquito coast, had been preserved, or if modified, to what extent?

Lord John Russell replied, that as negotiations had not yet terminated, it would be premature to go into the subject or to lay any papers before the House; but, certainly, it had been the object of the government to preserve the rights of Britain and of British settlers in those States.

Mr. MILNER Gibson brought forward, in an able speech resolutions—First, to abolish the duty on advertise-ments; secondly, to permit the cheap periodical press to publish news; and, thirdly, to abolish the expise duty on

After an interesting debate, the first resolution—to abolish the advertisement duty—was agreed to, without a division. The second and third were negatived by a

The London Times states that, upon intelligence re ceived by the Secretary of State, and the London police having kept watch for some time to find proof that would criminate Kossuth in the English courts, early on the morning of the 14th, Kossuth's house in London was searched by the police, acting under a Secretary of State's warrant. A large store of arms, ammunition, and materials of war was discovered.

The German papers say, also, that the recent arrests in Prussia were from information furnished by the English police, who had placed spies on the refugees.

In the House of Commons, on Friday, Sir Joshua Walmsley asked the government if these statements concerning Kossuth were true; and further, whether Great Britain had given assurance to any foreign power that the refugees should be put under police survei

Lord Palmerston replied that a warrant was issued to search a house at Rotherhithe, [this is in quite a different part of London to where Kossuth resides,] but not occupied by Kossuth, and in it were found several thou and war rockets, two thousand unloaded shells, and five hundred weight of gurpowder. Who these munitions belonged to, he (Palmerston) would not undertake to say. No assurance had been given to any foreign power, beyond that given to Parliament that the refugees should not be allowed to abuse the hospitality of the country.

Mr. DUNCOMBE said the place where the munitions were ound was a rocket factory, and Lord Palmerston wel knew that these very munitions had been offered for sale Mr. BRIGHT asked Lord Palmerston if Kossuth really had anything more to do with these rockets than the Or-Lord Parmerston replied that he cast no imputations or

Breaking the Telegraph Wires. For many months past the managers of the Eastern lines of telegraph, the press, and the public, have been greatly inconvenienced by the malicious breakage of the wires at about the time the steamers were due at Halifax. It has frequently happened that within the twenty. hours next succeeding the announcement of a steamer off Halifax, the wires have been cut or otherwise tampered with as many as six times; and on some occasions our Eastern agents have been compelled to resort to horse expresses to transmit our usual reports between words of the Canada's news had passed over the wires, they were interrupted, and remained so for several hours. During the afternoon the line was mended, but no seoner had the operators got to work than the line was again nterrupted, under circumstances which leave no doubt but that it was the work of some miscreant, who, there is reason to hope, will soon be trapped. Owing to these vexatious interruptions our full report from Halifax did the few words which came over the wires previous to the first interruption gave us the leading features of the principal market news, which were immediately trans mitted to the New Orleans and other Southern papers, and published simultaneously at three o'clock at all points between Boston and New Orleans, the news having been sent through over the Washington and New Orleans

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

New York, April 28, 1863.

I subscribe for your valuable journal, for the purpose of gratifying my wife, who, if she does not get the HERALD at breakfast, is cross all day. Now, sir, I am boarding out; and a married man, who sits next to me at table, is in the habit of monopolising my paper during the breakfast. Do suggest some mode for me to get rid of the imposition, or I shall be compelled to insult his meanness at the table, or stop the paper.

CANADIAN RECIPROCITY AND THE FISHERIES—CENTRAL AMERICAN AFFAIRS—THE FOREIGN APPOINTMENTS—GEN. DIX WILL REMAIN IN THE NEW YORK SUB-TREASURY—SERGEANT O'NEIL—LAND, INDIAN, AND OTHER AGENTS OF THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT, ETC. SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WASHINGTON, April 28-9 P. M. It is probable Mr. Marcy will, next week, take up for consideration the highly important questions connected with the North American fisheries, as well as the subject of commercial intercourse with the British North Ameri ingly anxious to resume negotiations on these subjects, and I have little doubt they will be met in a free and liberal spirit It cannot be denied that the attempt at bullying on the part of Mr. Hincks, of Canada, which finally evaporated when the period for action arrived, has left the matter in a less favorable position than if might otherwise have assumed. However, it is not probable the final result of the question, if their side is ably managed. The regotiations will afford Mr. Marcy an admirable opportunity of displaying his qualifications for the post he with Central American affairs have not yet specially occupied the attention of the President or cabinet. The general principle of avoidance of European interference in American affairs, is, of course, well understood; but the grave consideration as to whether the British government has violated in any way the provisions of the Clayton and Bulwer treaty, has not yet been considered. There can be no doubt, if the investigations lead to the conclusion that such is the case, the United States will speedily relieve itself of the odious principle of the

I regret to learn that Sergeant O'Nell is about to leave the White House. His absence will be a loss to the President. By his gentlemanly demeanor he has given every satisfaction to the public, whilst his dis crimination has enabled him to relieve the President much unnecessary annoyance. I learn from undoubted authority that there were no foreign appointments whatever determined upon in cabinet esterday, and all rumors to the contrary are utterly unfounded. The foreign appointments are under discussion and it is probable will be adjusted to-morrow. Mr. Dix's name has not been presented for a foreign mission, nor is there any reason to suppose it is intended to disturb him in his present position.

The following is a complete list of the Presidential appointments in the Department of the Interior since the djournment of the Senate. They will all require confirmation next session :- LAND OFFICES.

A fire broke out at one o'clock this morning, in a coden building occupied as a blacksmith shop in Endicott street, nearly opposite the Catholic Church, which was entirely destroyed, together with several buildings adjoining. The fire extended to the right and left, nearly destroying a block of two and a half story brick dwelling houses on Pond street place, occupied by numerous families on the one side, and a large wooden building. No. 130 Endicott street, occupied by Ebenezer Waters, grocer, and several cibers, on the other, and extending in the rear to the buildings on North Margin street, nearly destroying a three story brick dwelling house opposite Baldwin place, the bakery, dwelling and stable of J. E. Stevenson, and a block of wooden dwelling houses. The fire taged with great fury for a considerable time, the cinders passing in large quantities over the north part of the city, communicating fire to the roof of Christ Church, in Salem street, which was considerably injured. Some forty or fifty Irich families were rendered houseless by the conflagration.

ALBANY, April 28, 1853. There were three fires in this city last night. Four horses perishing in the flames—it was the work of an in-cendiary. About two o'clock this morning two dwelling hourse on Beaver street were partially destroyed—fully insured.

Amongst the arrivals yesterday at the Metropolitan Hotel were Hon. Wm. Wallace, Arkansas; Hon. Henry Leonard, Pefneylvania; Capt. Wm. M. Glendy, U. S. Navy; Lieut. W. 6. Gilb, U. S. Army; Hon. Nathan Church, Massachusetts.

Major Gen. Wool, U. S. Army, is at the Tremont House Singular Case of Suicide.—Jacob Cole, of this village, committed suicide on Tuesday afternoon last, by blowing out his brains with a gun. It is generally the case when a person commits an act of so rash a nature, that they share largely in the sympathy of the public; but in this case it was quite to the contrary, it being almost impossible, from the nature of the circumstances connected with his death, to accure the assistance of men enough to consign his remains to the grave. The causes which induced him to the sacrifice of his own life were as follows—On Saturday last, a young girl who had been living in his family for some time past, appeared before Justice Tervilliger, of this village, and preferred a charge of rape against him, upon which he was arrested, and held to bail for his appearance at court in the sum of $1,000. The Circuit Court in and for Ulster county being in session this week at Kingston, he was in expectation of being called by his counsel, at every moment, to appear immediately before the Grand Jury, to answer to the otherge preferred against him. It seems his counsel was about making a rettlement of the affair with the father of the girl, and wishing to consult Cole in regard to the matter, telegraphed for him to come down immediately, not stating any particulars. Cole mistock the aummons to be for his appearance before the court, and rather than appear before the legal tribunal, he put an end to his existence. His age was 11 years. Coroner Merclean held an inquest upon the body, and the verdiet of the jury was, that he "came to his death by deliberately shooting himself with a gun."—Saugerties Telegraph.
